-streaming.xyz aus dem Internet: lesen auf, neue Epub-Books ansehen, lesen sie lesen, aufspielen... For the entire month of December, we will be having a contest. You'll need to watch the video, download the book from the link, and then create a novel, from a place that we did not mention, and tag us in your post. This can be whatever you want. You can make a Jack Reacher type of thing, or you can write a Romeo and Juliet story (again with a Jack Reacher type of thing in the end). Write a story about your experience watching the video in order to enter, or write a novel about a time that you watched the video and experienced the event. You can watch the video, and also download the book. The key word is complete. Once you have downloaded the book, you can upload it to your e-reader, and it will be considered a valid entry. Not an e-reader, but a traditional reader? You can read it on Amazon as well, but you'll need to get it there, as it won't be on the web. Obviously we'll have the contest on a month-by-month basis, so we'll have some other ones coming your way. Don't worry, we'll have enough books. If you enter the contest, and tag us, please put the date that you enter in the comments, and we'll choose one random entry per day to get a book. Once you have downloaded the book, you can upload it to your e-reader, and it will be considered a valid entry. For the entire month of December, we will be having a contest.
